MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Operations
FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration
SUBJECT : Dinner for Mr. Bush, 24 January 1977
REFERENCE : DDA Memo (76-6351) to DDI, DDO, DDS&T;
dtd 22 December 1976; Same Subject

1. The planned amenities in connection with the departure of Mr. Bush remain as reported to you in my memorandum of 22 December.

2. The guest list for the dinner on Monday, 24 January 1977, has now been compiled. The list has been prepared on the same protocol basis as the previous dinner for Mr. Colby.

3. The organizational structure of the DDO does present us a problem in light of the total seating constraints we have available for the dinner. There are a total of 19 DDO Division and Staff Chiefs, but we must limit the total attendance to no more than 14. Therefore, will you please, at your earliest convenience, have your secretary contact [REDACTED] in my office and identify the 14 individuals to whom invitations should be sent. In order to ensure as much consistency of rank among those in attendance, may I suggest that all your Division Chiefs receive an invitation.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
 FROM : John F. Blake
 Deputy Director for Administration
 Hank:

1. The attached proposed guest list for the Director's Dinner on Monday, 24 January, includes 74 names. 74 really is two beyond the maximum capacity. In addition to that, Jennifer has suggested that Mr. Bush would appreciate having Karen and Debbie present.

2. I have talked to [REDACTED] and we both are of 25X1A the opinion that the inclusion of [REDACTED] the next ranking 25X1A officer, would be sufficient. I believe this is right because basically this dinner is a CIA affair and not a Community affair. The NIO's work for the DCI as opposed to the Executive Head of the CIA. If we were to have five or six NIO's, then we should probably take another look at the representation from the Intelligence Community Staff. Pretty soon, this thing would be out of control. To add further to the complications I believe, in fairness, that the SIGINT Task Force, Messrs. [REDACTED] Hirsh, should be invited.

3. I believe the constructive solution to this problem is as follows. Looking at it from the Directorate point-of-view DDO, because of their large staff structure, comes out at 19 people. In descending order it is DDI with 15, DDA with 10 and DDS&T with 8 people. I suggest we tell Bill Wells the maximum DDO representation would be 14, and Division Chiefs should automatically receive invitations and then leave it to him to extend the remainder to his Staff Chiefs. By so doing we then will be able to accommodate [REDACTED] Karen and Debbie, and [REDACTED] and Hirsh.
